

The South Carolina Upstate

Farm to School Field Trip Guide

Fruit and Vegetable Farms

Callaham Orchards and Specialties- located in Anderson County, Callaham Orchards features peaches, blackberries, nectarines, apples, plums, strawberries, pumpkins, muscadines, figs, vegetables, preserves, and ice cream. For more information about farm tours, call (864) 338-0810 or email callahamorchards@charter.net

Happy Cow Creamery- located in Anderson County, Happy Cow Creamery offers farm fresh whole milk, chocolate milk, buttermilk processed on the farm, local honey, Carolina rice, local ground grit, cornmeal, American classic tea, and seasonal fruits and vegetables. For more information about farm tours, call (864) 243-9699, visit www.happycowcreamery.com, or email trandairy@bellsouth.net

Hardy Berry Farm- located in Anderson County, Hardy Berry grows strawberries, blackberries, blueberries, raspberries, peaches, muscadines, and scuppernongs. Hardy Berry also sells local honey and wholegrain bread and pastries. For more information, call (864) 224-5441 or email hardyberryfarm@bellsouth.net

Split Creek Farm- located in Anderson County, Split Creek Farm produces raw goat milk, artisan goat cheese, goat milk fudge, goat milk soaps, and other specialty food items. Group tours of the farm and studio are available by appointment. To schedule a tour, call (864) 287-3921, email info@splitcreek.com or visit www.splitcreek.com

Strawberry Hill USA/Cooley Peach Farms- located in Cherokee County, Strawberry Hill USA grows peaches, strawberries, cantaloupes, tomatoes, nectarines, blackberries, pumpkins, apples, and other seasonal vegetables. Strawberry Hill also sells and serves specialty items such as jams, jellies, bread, and homemade ice-cream in their very own Strawberry Hill Café. For more information about visiting and tours, call (864) 649-1414 or visit www.strawberryhillusa.com

The Market at Cotton Hills- located in Chester County, Cotton Hills Farm grows peaches, strawberries, tomatoes, watermelon, sweet corn, pumpkins, squash, cucumbers, and sweet potatoes. The Market at Cotton Hills sells southern field grits, local honey, and various canned goods. For more information about a farm visit, call (803) 581-4545 or visit www.cottonhillsfarm.com

Perdue's Mountain Fruit Farm- located in Greenville County, Perdue's Mountain Fruit Farm grows eleven kinds of fruits and ninety-eight varieties. The farm also serves fresh apple cider, applesauce, fancy fresh fruit preserves, and mountain honey. The farm is visitor-friendly with a picnic area, restroom, and farm tours. Call (864) 895-0608 or email perdueapple@charter.net

John De La Howe School Farmers Market- located in McCormick County, John De La Howe grows corn, squash, cucumbers, tomatoes, and green beans. Their season of operation is June through October. For more information, call (864) 391-0487 or email gableg@delahowe.k12.sc.us

Chattooga Belle Farms- located in Oconee County, Chattooga Belle is an agri-tourism farm that is widely known as one of the most beautiful farms in the upstate. The farm grows peaches, muscadines, okra, blueberries, and apples. Specialty items such as wine, salsa, beverages, apple butter, and deserts are made and sold on the farm. Chattooga Belle Farms is a great place for kids to learn about how agriculture and tourism can be combined to create a successful, well-run farm that is involved in the community. For more information, call (864) 647-9768 or visit www.chattoogabellefarm.com

Lever Farms- located in Newberry County, Lever Farms is a U-pick operation that grows strawberries, blackberries, tomatoes, potatoes, corn, beets, squash, and cantaloupes. They also produce specialty items such as jams, cider, syrup, and dressings. For more information, call (803) 321-5952 or email leverfarms@bellsouth.net

M&M Dairy- located in Oconee county, M&M produces eggs, raw milk, and milk from Holstein cows in gallons and half-gallons. For more information, call (864) 710-9768

Abbott Farms and Fruit Market- located in Spartanburg county, Abbot farms is a large producer of peaches, apples, tomatoes, watermelons, canned goods, honey, and cider. The farm has five sites that are located in Spartanburg, Boiling Springs, Gaffney, and Cowpens. Abbott Farms is visitor-friendly and welcomes large groups. For more information, call (864) 582-1077 or visit www.abbottfarmsoline.com

Evans Produce & Jolley Farm Outlet- located in Spartanburg county, Evans Produce and Jolley Farm Outlet grows fruits and veggies and produces their own jams, jellies, meats, cheeses, preserves, chow-chow, cider, pickles, syrup, honey, and dressings. For more information, call (864) 461-7775

From Seed & Soil- located in Spartanburg county, From Seed and Soil grows and produces peaches, tomatoes, cantaloupes, watermelon, cucumbers, squash, okra, bell peppers, jams, and jellies. For more information, call (864) 238-7221 or email tomstock69@aol.com

Gramling Farms Inc- located in Spartanburg county, Gramling grows peaches, strawberries, and various vegetables. For more information about farm visits, call (864) 472-9649 or visit www.gramlingfarms.com

Green Acres Produce & More- located in Spartanburg county, Green Acres grows strawberries and other produce items. For more information, call (864) 576-2784

Peach Country- located in Spartanburg county, Peach Country grows more than just peaches! Other produce items and goods include nectarines, plums, melons, vegetables, strawberries, blueberries, roasted peanuts, apples, pumpkins, jams, jellies, and peach slushies. For more information, call (864) 430-3353 and www.ashdownroses.com/index

Bush-N-Vine Farm – located in York county, Bush-N-Vine farm grows strawberries, raspberries, peaches, blueberries, cantaloupes, tomatoes, watermelon, beans, peas, and sweet corn. The farm has three family-owned and operated sites in York, Lake Wylie, and Rock Hill. For information about farm visits, call (803) 684-4945 for the York location, (803) 684-2732 for Lake Wylie, and (803) 684-2734 for Rock Hill or visit www.bushnvinefarm.com

Sanders Brothers- located in York county, Sanders Brothers grows peaches and vegetables. For more information about the farm, call (803) 684-6064

South Forty Farm, LLC- located in York county, South Forty Farm grows sweet corn, tomatoes, squash, okra, peppers, cucumbers, cantaloupe, onions, watermelons, and peaches. For more information, call (704) 575-3550

The Peach Stand- located in York County, The Peach Stand sells fruits, vegetables, and operates a custom butcher shop. They are open Sunday through Saturdays, 6:30am-9pm. For more information, call (803) 547-7563

Black's Peaches & The Cotton Belt Bakery- located in York county, Black's grows peaches strawberries, corn, and tomatoes. The Cotton Belt Bakery produces and sells local honey, bulk dried beans, hoop cheese, jams and jellies, Christmas trees, wreaths, and greenery. For more information, call (803) 684-2333 www.blackspeachesandbakery.com

Springs Farm- located in York county, Springs Farm grows strawberries, peaches, corn, melons, and tomatoes. Springs Farm is a pick your own operation and offers field trips and hay rides. For more information, email buypeaches@springsfarm.com or visit www.springsfarm.com

Buffalo Farms- located in Greenville county, Buffalo Farms is a vegetable, dairy, and buffalo farm. Field trips are available by appointment. For more information, email buffalofarms@aol.com

Bratton Family Plantation- located in York County, the Bratton Plantation is a 775-acre historic site that has been around since 1774. Home to the award-winning Heritage Farm Program, Historic Brattonsville offers demonstrations of historical farming techniques, including plowing a field using a horse, and day-to-day activities presented by costumed interpreters throughout the year. The farm maintains representative numbers of livestock to interpret the important role they played in the lives of the historic peoples in the region. The farm currently keeps a flock of sheep, small numbers of poultry, cattle, pigs, and horses. For more information, call (803) 684-2327 or visit www.chmuseums.org/brattonsville/